

1 On Saturday, 10/02/2021, Mr. Randell Beckham rented 40 chairs from our company Indy
2 Jump (Exhibit A). On Sunday 10/03/2021, he returned 37 of the 40 chairs on his return
3 date. He stated he would be back shortly with the other 3 chairs and never returned or 4 called to state he was coming back that day. On October 6th, 2021 we sent Mr. Beckham 5 an invoice for the purchase of the chairs, and in return he sent an email back stating he 6 refused to sign invoice and that he would return the chairs to our office. On October 7th, 7 2021 he acknowledges once again that he had the chairs, asked if we wanted them back
8 and we stated that it was his choice to return the chairs and pay $1.50 per chair per day
9 late fee or keep them and pay $99.00 (Exhibit B). As of November 2nd 2021 those chairs
10 have still not yet been returned. On Thursday, October 21, 2021 we sent Mr. Beckham a 11 "Notice Of Intent To Sue" letter with no response, nor return of our property. We have 12 given more than enough time to respond without a response from him. At this time the 13 late fees does outweigh the cost of the 3 chairs and the Plaintiff requests the cost of 14 $99.00 for the replacement of these chairs.
